SHOULD I CHOOSE
FOR USE AT HOME?

The learning process doesn't stop just because you leave school and head home. You still must practice, do homework, read books, and keep up the progression. With C-Pen, you get a tool that empowers you and your child's ability to study autonomously, whether it's learning to read, a new language or studying for exams. This guide will advise you on which C-Pen you should choose depending on your child's needs.

DOES YOUR CHILD NEED TO DEVELOP THEIR ABILITY TO READ?

Reading for your child early boosts their interest in books and literature, as proven in numerous studies. It's also proven that an early interest in reading will benefit children's schoolwork. Your child will want to start reading independently after they have cracked the reading code. The C-Pen Reader is a perfect tool to support your child's journey to becoming a fluent and independent reader. It can help them with pronunciation and word comprehension, gradually making it easier to take on more challenging books. If your child has reading disabilities, the C-Pen Reader will also be a valuable aid when reading and learning throughout the school.

C-Pen Reader supports independent reading of the text with natural voices, helping your child understand the meaning of words better and learn more efficiently. Textbooks, magazines, and document content can all be unlocked with the aid of the C-Pen Reader.

DOES YOUR CHILD NEED TO GET THE HOMEWORK DONE MORE EFFICIENTLY?

Doing homework can be challenging for somebody with reading disabilities. Unlike in school, they don't have a teacher at hand that can help them. And as a parent or an older sibling, you are not always present when help is needed. With C-Pen Reader, they can get started independently and don't have to wait for assistance. Of course, it's not intended to replace the support from parents, but it's a tool that makes the child less dependent on having a person constantly present.

C-Pen Reader is a convenient portable tool to support independent studying. Scan text with this state-of-the-art device to have words read out with natural speaking voices and defined with highest-tier dictionaries in an instant. C-Pen Reader also features a voice recorder and supports storing scanned text. It also promotes multi-sensory learning and aids language retention. Use the included voice recorder to support learner revisions. Students can record pronunciations or objectives from teachers to develop independent learning.

IS YOUR CHILD LEARNING A NEW LANGUAGE?

Learning a new language becomes more manageable if your child reads, speaks, and listens to it as much as possible. Every time they encounter a new word they haven't met before, they need an easy way to learn how to pronounce it and what it means. With LingoPen, they can do this even when reading a printed book. They just highlight the word and listen. Reading and listening make learning and remembering easier, gradually advancing to even more challenging texts.

LingoPen is a convenient portable tool for those who need support learning a new language. Scan text with this state-of-the-art device to instantly look up and translate words between different languages. LingoPen has a text-to-speech function for further language retention. LingoPen also features a voice recorder and supports storing scanned text, everything is built-in, and there is no need or requirement for an internet connection.

DOES YOUR CHILD NEED TO IMPROVE THEIR STUDY TECHNIQUES?

Studying sometimes means processing a lot of printed text, like writing an essay or preparing for a test. Not seldom are the sources published in books or photocopies. Using C-Pen Connect and a computer or a smartphone, your children can quickly scan relevant parts of the text. It's just like a highlighter pen, with the difference being that the text gets into their computer. Then they can use them as quotes for a paper or share their notes with their classmates. They can also get their notes read out aloud.

C-Pen Connect is a convenient Bluetooth-enabled text scanner compatible with computers, tablets, and smartphones. Use C-Pen Connect to capture and save text instantly to your computer or mobile. With a Connect Cloud account, text files are automatically shared between your child's devices and can easily be shared with classmates for collaboration purposes.
